ABOUT THE PLACES:

Pakistan is home to several important Sikh heritage sites, each deeply tied to the life and teachings of Guru Nanak and other Sikh Gurus. Gurdwara Dera Sahib in Lahore marks the martyrdom of Guru Arjan Dev and is a major pilgrimage site. Nearby, Hazori Bagh houses the tomb of Maharaja Ranjit Singh, symbolizing the Sikh Empire's legacy. Darbar Sahib in Gujranwala is linked to Guru Nanak's visit to the area and is an important place of worship. Panja Sahib in Hasan Abdal features the sacred handprint of Guru Nanak on a rock, drawing Sikh devotees from around the world. Nankana Sahib, the birthplace of Guru Nanak, is one of the holiest places for Sikhs. These sites are integral to Sikh history and serve as spiritual landmarks in Pakistan.
