About Pakistan

Pakistan is the land of hospitality and diverse landscapes, offering an extraordinary blend of natural beauty, ancient history, and vibrant cultures. Home to all four distinct seasons, the country features the world's highest cold desert, the second-highest plateau, and five of the world's fourteen peaks rising above 8,000 meters, including some of the most iconic mountains on Earth.

With a vast coastal belt stretching along the Arabian Sea, fertile plains, vibrant food culture, dramatic valleys, and towering ranges of the Himalayas, Karakoram, and Hindukush, Pakistan presents unmatched geographical diversity. It is the cradle of ancient civilizations such as Indus and Harappa, and a crossroads of civilizations, preserving rich Sikh and Buddhist heritage trails alongside diverse living cultures that continue to thrive across the country.
